To Mr. Montgomery, Delphi, and its counsel Sina Toussi:

I am writing on behalf of my company, Lorentson Manufacturing Company, Inc. ("Lorentson-Kokomo"). As of the petition date, Delphi Automotive Systems (the "Debtor") owed a total of $1,495,511.30<sup>1</sup> to Lorentson-Kokomo for goods supplied to the Debtor by Lorentson-Kokomo in the months prior to the 10-day reclamation period (see Exhibit A enclosed herewith).

Lorentson-Kokomo currently owes $222,257.50 to the Debtor for goods supplied pre-petition, as detailed in Exhibit B enclosed herewith, and is entitled to setoff or recoupment with respect to such amount. Accordingly, Lorentson-Kokomo placed the Debtor's pre-petition invoices on administrative hold pending completion of its investigation and completion of the setoff review process described in the Court's DIP financing order entered on October 28, 2005.

In order to avoid unnecessary costs and delays Lorentson-Kokomo would like the Debtor's consent to such setoff and agreement to prepare a joint motion for approval of such setoff

Please contact me, or my counsel Jeannette Elsan Hinshaw, as soon as possible to inform me whether the Debtor is willing to consent to the proposed setoff.

Sincerely,

Lorentson Manufacturing Company, Inc.

By
LEONARD LORENTSON, President

I send the attached documents on behalf of my client, Lorentson Southwest and Lorentson Kokomo.

Pursuant to the Court's DIP financing order entered on October 28, 2005 (specifically, paragraph 18 thereof), please find attached requests for setoff by Lorentson Southwest and Lorentson Kokomo. The DIP financing order provides that Delphi is to respond to all setoff requests within 10 business days of receiving same; accordingly, I would expect to receive Delphi's response to the attached setoff requests by no later than December 6, 2005.

Invoices to support the amount claimed to be owed by Delphi will be provided upon request.
